In My Life

by
Drake Austin

American Idiots?

Greetings once again readers, I hope you are unscathed from the pains-in-the-ass known as hurricanes and am glad you have picked up our magazine and are reading my article.

Today the gloves are off and I'm gonna stress something that was an undertone of my last article.

By now I hope everyone has heard the controversial American Idiot song on the radio by the band Green Day. I can easily see where this song came from and why it is so true especially in Central Florida, and especially in Brevard county.

So I'm here to clean my pipes. I have a saying "A colony cannot be supported by one or two ants." I believe in this heavily and I know a lot of my fellow gay rights activists feel the same way due to the lack of community in our great race. Now some say it sound's almost Nazi-ish to call Homosexuals a race but in fact we are, we are not a persuasion, not a disease, we're a race in the same context as a nationality, just like Americans, French, English and so on. In my mind the most powerful civilization on the face of the earth accepted homosexuality widely, of course I speak of the great Roman Empire, which I will get to in later columns.

This isn't the B.Cs. There's no gay

Emperor, no great nude Olympics in public and no laws protecting us. That is why I'm ringing the alarm clock on the Northern part of Brevard. I live here as well as a great number of homosexuals. We all don't talk; we have no place to meet, no sanctuary, no way of meeting others in a wide area for a nice chat. Brevard is a desolate dead area with so little pride. I want to see our great population in the area stand up. If you're an out of high school teen, set up a youth group, join the Brevard Lesbians or Brevard Together Yahoo! list and get cracking. Talk to the elders or myself, we would more than love to help you. I would love to see a PFLAG here and not have to drive to Vero, I would love to have gay book clubs, and so on. I am one of few that is an ant carrying the colony, and I'll admit, I'm tried and busy in my senior year so again I am writing this for YOU, and I hate to sound like a conformist American drone but, I WANT YOU TO BE OUT, GAY, PROUD, AND ABOVE ALL THINGS IN MY MIND, UNITED. Start something, do something with your life and power don't be someone with a lot of time and friends and sit on your ass doing nothing, start a club or a group and get it on the web, I beg of you. Please contact me at Crayak87@yahoo.com for any help at all, I will steer you in any way you need. ▼

NOTE: DUE TO SCHEDULE CHANGES BY THE MAGAZINE THIS IS THE HOROSCOPE FOR OCTOBER.

Personal relationships; love, and personal values are the two things most important for all this month. With 6 planets going through the sign of Libra and Venus going through Virgo, we are all being forced to look at the purity of the relationships we have formed around us. The New moon on the 13th highlights the positive and negatives around you. This is not a time to take action. Because of the full moon on the 27th, you will have to wait until then to make the right decision. This is a great time to enhance your love life. Be playful and open to new romantic experiences. You never know where it will lead.

Aries Be careful not to pay attention to your personal life because of the added responsibility at work. Learn to live in the now and let your work go before you walk in the door. You will find life to be easier. This month will also bring balance to your finances, if you look at the long-term picture.

Taurus Romance is your focus for this month. You will find yourself looking for that perfect partnership both in business and in love. The time you spend socializing will bring you at the least new friends and business partnerships and maybe that special someone as well.

Gemini This month you need to find a balance between your obligations and responsibilities and your playtime or you will find yourself losing patience. When you have reached your limit, be tactful. You will find your words are more powerful than you think. Your creative abilities are heightened. Start something you have always wanted to and have put off.

Cancer You will still find yourself focused on your home and family. Be careful not to miss a great Job opportunity. Your creative energies are flowing and it's the perfect time to financially make it pay off. Learn to balance your home life and your avenue of expression. Then you will find your fulfillment.

Leo The efforts you put out last month have now set a new foundation in your life. The keywords for you this month are ability and flexibility. Both your personal life and professional life will require your attention. Use your creative use of language to get what you want. Take the time to play; it will help with your patience level.

Virgo Financially you are strong this month. Through your own personal efforts you can make great financial gains. Your social life is also highlighted. You may find yourself making new friendships however, be careful not to get into a power struggle. Realize that a difference of opinion does not mean one is right or one is wrong.

Libra Happy solar return to my entire fellow Libran's. With 6 planets going through your sign and a new moon in Libra on the 13th of this month, change is in the air. Allow your true self to step forward and be seen. Take the time on the 13th to start taking steps toward your goals. You will find it will pay off two-fold. Pamper yourself; the roadblocks have been lifted.

Scorpio This is a retrospective month for you. Use this time to evaluate your successes and failures, your hopes and dreams. See where the path changed and what you have learned along the way. Your strength is high this month. Use that knowledge to make long-term plans. If you do, next month will open those doors.

Sagittarius Finding the balance in life is your work for this month. Both your professional and personal life will be active. Learn how to get to the point quickly and move on to your next experience. You have much to learn about timing. You will also find yourself to be more romantic this month. Make sure to take the time to act upon those dreams.

Capricorn The work you have put into your career is being called attention to now. You are in good standing with the authority figures in your life. Use this time to show them your true talents. However, this focus on your career can harm your personal life. Make sure you take the time to show how much you care to those close to you.

Aquarius This is a month for learning and growth especially in your own personal values and beliefs. Listen and remember to stay off your soapbox. Don't debate; ask questions. You may find the difference in their point of view enlightening. Writing and knowledge work in your favor at this time. Use them both wisely.

Pisces This is the month for you to learn how to juggle. Balance is the key. Do what you feel is right with your conscience and all will be well. You will be socializing more than usual this month. Allow others to help you maintain your balance and don't let compassion turn to guilt. ▼

For those who want to know: The keyword for Libra is balance. Because Venus rules it and is the only zodiac sign ruled by a machine, they are driven by their one-to-one relationships. It is an air sign so communication is extremely important.

What this means for all is this is a great time to access your marriage and business partnerships and make sure you are making the right decisions.

Tea Time

with Miss T

Well! Aren't we special! Two hurricanes and everything just blown to... Anyway we decided not to publish an October issue since no one had had any business for a month and with damage and whatnot to pay for, it was for the best – all advertisers contracts are adjusted to extend one month. We hope all of you are safe. We sincerely hope that you have not suffered too greatly. We know that some of you have lost all and our hearts go out to you. We have a loving and sharing community, so please take advantage of that at this time and ask for help. You will find columns from the October issue and pictures mostly from August, but by next month we'll be back on track.

In Drake Austin's column this month he delivers a call for involvement in Brevard County. I received an email recently announcing that Brevard Together intends to dissolve after their Christmas dinner. Here is a prime opportunity for some people to get involved and take over a venerable organization and revitalize it. John F did his best to lead BT in a different direction to no avail. So now is the time for some other/younger people to get involved and make use of the resources that exist to create the type of organization they want. It has money; it has a web site and a Yahoo! Group just sitting there ready to go. We wish we could step in, but between this magazine and the Kerry campaign there just isn't time – so where are the thirty-somethings and the twenty-somethings and even teenagers who are willing to join up and make BT go? I know that the insistence of older members on having alcohol at events has prevented under 21s from being involved, but nothing says that has to continue. Here's an opportunity that will not come again. KNOCK KNOCK

I hope you that knew in time took advantage of the opportunity from the East Coast MCC to attend the concert by the contemporary Christian artist Melanie. She will performed at the MCC Melbourne service Saturday, October.

The news from The Family of God in Christ Community Church in Cocoa shows they know how to take advantage of opportunity. They've moved into their new sanctuary space on September 19, Deacon Nancy was ordained recently and their thrift shop will opened October 15! It will be open Wednesdays through Fridays 10 am to 5 pm and Saturdays 10 am to 2 pm. The thrift shop will be a great place to find economical replacements for things lost in the storms, or to donate that one good piece from a set that was ruined. Contact them at 321-632-3767. Plans are on-going for the opening of their SHARE house, a residential ministry for those who are ill, disabled or going through transition in their lives – more on that as plans develop.

Nautical Jack's is developing: they've expanded their hours to open at 4 pm, with happy hour from 4 to 7. As they work on perfecting their schedule Jack and Norma asked me to remind you to ask about their drink specials nightly and to look for snacks around the bar. Nautical Jack's weathered the hurricanes just fine and check out their ad for new activities and what promises to be hot November Saturdays.

Hot nights have been on-going at the Cold Keg. With minimal damage and Sharon and the staff swung into action to bring you the parties immediately after the storms. Cold Keg will make up for all the lost party time on Halloween weekend. Leigh Shannon and Amber Douglas team up for Hocus Pocus, followed on Saturday by SCREAM, their Halloween party with Sassy Devine and strippers and all of Brevard partying big time! Dress up for a free drink and enter the contest for cash and prizes. And get your outfits ready for the Miss Brevard County Newcomer Pageant on November 8. See the ad on page 5 for details or just call the bar.

Vero Beach PFLAG is readying for change. With new people in charge at the Heritage Center in Vero, the rent for their monthly gathering there went from $30 to $240!!!! Now granted they has a special deal for many years, but all the same this is really out of line. Fortunately, with the missed September meeting, they will be able to have their November Thanksgiving dinner meeting at the Heritage Center and the board is trying to share costs with another group for the December meeting. Starting next year meetings will be at UU until other arrangements can be made. Vero Beach PFLAG is such an outstanding organization that their good work is known and respected for 100 miles up and down our coast, it's a shame that they have to move from the place they've met for many years.

Kelli Randell is a person known equally as far for not only being a great performer, but for her good work on behalf of people in need. Her house was damaged, but not a word of complaint as she worried about those she knows who lost more. Kelli Randell is a role model for us all. She and the staff pitched in and got Club Bλrd Cage open to serve Port St. Lucie just in time for Jeanne! Never fear, Club Bλrd Cage was open in short order after Jeanne. The only casualty was that the Miss Bλrd Cage Pageant has been delayed until January. Halloween weekend there will be a blast with an amateur drag contest on Friday, the big party on Saturday and A Tacky Tourist T-dance on Sunday (complete with a cash prize). Check out their ad on page 17 for their new weeknight line up and upcoming events like employee turnout show November 18 (Frances blew this event all the way into November!).

Saturday, October 16, DJ Lori retired signaling and end to a Port St. Lucie institution. Lori's been around for years – even before Club Babylon. Despite short notice there was a nice crowd at VIPs for the goodbyes. It's too bad there wasn't more notice, as I know more people wanted to say goodbye. The sale of VIPs is

The Name of Your Storm??

Many of us in the past few weeks have endured some really trying storms. Some of us, who have just had our power restored, the debris picked up and home repairs done are again preparing for yet another storm that threatens our coastal areas. Some have lost their jobs, due to damages and layoffs. We are certainly challenged both as individuals and as communities. [Today we are preparing for Jeanne]

We as a community and as individuals have been through many kinds of storms in our lives. Where for whatever circumstances, we have had to pick up the pieces left and put them back together and re-build our lives hopefully stronger from the experiences and move on in a recovery that gives us strength and endurance for the next challenges that may lie ahead.

It is the recovery from the storms of life that bring us to a higher awareness of our lives. In that recovery we experience what really matters and prioritize our needs to accommodate a more peace filled and loving life. Yes it is an anxious and stress filled time and many of us feel powerless over what may transpire and what our future may bring. But we must be a people of hope, a people of love and most of all a people of peace.

The most significant presence we have to hold on to is the peace and power of our God and creator. What disturbs me at times is when others in the name of God, blame our creator for the destruction of the storms. My friends, WE as people with the ultimate gift of free will, have developed our land, knowing well the power of nature and its goal to clean the land, place ourselves, our homes and businesses into nature's fury. We need to take responsibility for the circumstances we have made for ourselves, and let God be in the hearts and minds of the people who are there to help us in our recovery.

Our recovery from the challenges of storm is what is most important. How we pick up the pieces left behind and put them back together is what teaches us more about the lives we lead and who we are as a people of God. We have recovered from the stresses of life and we again will prevail. It is my hope and prayer that you will be safe, rebuild and strengthen what the storms have left behind into a stronger people, unified on what is truly important in our lives.

Truly open your hearts and minds to what is really important during these times of challenge. Embark to a safer place of peace and love in your lives. May that safe place be blessed with God's wisdom, love and most of all his peace. Be Safe, be loving and most of all be peaceful. ▼

May God bless you and those you love,

Mark Osdras, Pastor

proceeding and barring last-minute hitches there will be a new owner soon, so Danielle and Andrew took the opportunity to thank everyone who has ever been involved – a really nice touch, showing that they are big hearted people. We look forward to letting you all in on what the new owner will do with the place in next month's issue.

Speaking of next month's issue, with all the changes brought on by the storms, we decided to change our publication schedule in November and December. The November issue will come out the week before Thanksgiving on the 18th and the December issue will come out the week before Christmas on the 16th. We will return to the last Thursday publication date in January.

Vote '04 A Change tidbit: The Republican Platform committee adopted a plank calling for the banning of not just Gay Marriage, but any type of civil union as well. Can they be far from calling for the re-criminalization of homosexuality? We must send a message, the majority of this great country doesn't even vote – so we must encourage them to. It is vital that each of us reach out and see to it that everyone we know votes. We do live in a great country, an accepting and generous one that will come back to that course if the population votes. A message must be sent that the radical fundamentalists in this country will be allowed to reshape it in their repressive image. So please, I beg you, do something for your country and get everyone you know to vote Democrat.

Jeff Fisher, 16th Cong. District

We feel that it is extremely important to send a message in this election.

Therefore, contrary to the publisher's usual voting preferences, we urge all voters to vote a straight Democrat ticket.
It is a matter of our civil rights, and only if Republicans loose on all levels can we truly effect change.
