HOROSCOPE by Jacqueline

Welcome to the not-so-loving Valentines Day month. The focus this month is not so much about finding love, but clearing a path to be able to allow love to find you. The full Moon on the 2nd in Leo is hitting Saturn in Leo, which brings lessons in romance. With Mars in Capricorn, the key is to move slowly. Mercury goes retrograde on the 13th and it will allow you to let go of what doesn't serve you any more. The New Moon being void-of-course between Aquarius and Pisces will open you to what you truly want in your life and how to get there. Trust and all will end well.

Aries March 22-April 23 Boundaries and limits are not your thing, but others will attempt to reel you into their narrow way of thinking. Don't fall into their trap. Look at how it will be in the future and stand your ground. By the end of the month, this will draw your friendships closer.

Taurus April 22- May 22 With Mars in Capricorn trining your sign, spring cleaning will come early. This is the perfect time to organize your life. You'll be able to set a budget and stick to it. Think of this as the beginning of your year. What you set into motion now will dictate how your year will evolve.

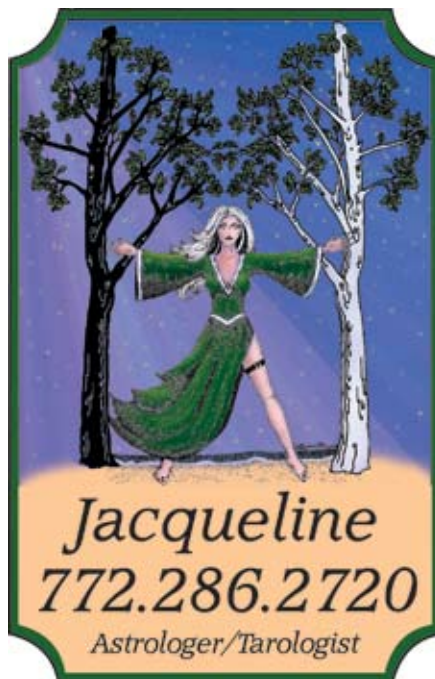

Gemini May 22 – June 23 Time comes to a screeching halt for you this month. Nothing is urgent. If it appears urgent then you know it's wrong. Do more investigating. What the universe is trying to get you to do is stop and reassess your long-term goals so that next month you'll know which direction you're heading.

Cancer June 22 – July 23 Don't give up this month; you need to try harder to get your point across. Try a different approach. Be open with how you feel and you'll be surprised at the results. Know that it's not that they don't care; they're just not understanding your approach.

Leo July 22 – August 23 Do you feel like you've hit a brick wall yet? Communications are skewed now. Sit back and observe. The truth will come out, the walls will drop and you'll be back on your way. The important thing is that this month will reveal who your friends are ... and who is not.

Virgo August 22 – September 23 This month brings a time for finishing those projects you've let go by the wayside. You'll be able to see what direction you want to go and you may be surprised at what you perceive. All of the obligations from the past will only hold you back. The sooner you finish them, the sooner you'll get what you want.

Libra September 22 – October 23 This would be a good month to take a vacation or just get away from your day-to-day routine. If others appear to be cold to you, it's not their intention. The universe is showing you what and who needs to be changed in your life. Be patient, your decisions will come slowly, but they'll be right.

Scorpio October 22 – November 23 Your passions will be energized this month. Use them wisely! Don't try to fulfill them with half-hearted attempts as you'll only be disappointed. Instead, set a long-term plan to get exactly what you want and stick to it. You'll find it will pay off better than you ever planned.

Sagittarius November 22 – December 23 Think before you speak' should be your motto this month. You have clear thoughts, but with Mercury retrograde, it'll come out in the wrong way and you'll find yourself with a lot of explaining to do. Wait to find the right wording and you'll be loved for your thoughtfulness.

Capricorn December 22 – January 23 No one can stop you this month. You're a force to be reckoned with; use this power wisely. You know where you need to go. Plan and go both slowly and consistently in that direction. Don't wait for others and don't take it personally. They'll understand and catch up later.

Aquarius January 22 – February 23 Happy Solar return! You'll have an interesting Birthday with unusual opportunities coming up after the new Moon on the 17th. Be open to what it's revealing. Your friends will want you to play mediator. Don't come to any conclusions until you've heard the whole story. Then you'll be able to solve the problem.

Pisces February 22 – March 23 You're putting a lot of energy out and not getting it back. Don't you think it's time to change your approach? This month you should stop, take some time to pamper yourself and reflect upon what you want. Once you've seen what makes you happy, you'll realize how easily it can be achieved. ▼

For those who want to know: The best word to describe Aquarius is 'dramatic.' With Uranus as its ruler, something is always happening. The good part about Aquarians is their ability to see the end result of a situation once they remove the drama in their mind. They are ruled by air, but their symbol is the water barer. This gives them the ability to be great humanitarians, especially for the underdogs. So this month is a good time to look into the future, see the end result and be compassionate to others until they can see as well.

You're right, In Our Past, our history column by Celeste DeRoche is missing. This is not a permanent situation, but rather due to Celeste having undergone an operation that prevents her from writing for a couple of issues. Gail reports that the operation went well and that Celeste is doing just fine. We wish her a speedy recovery and look forward to her return to our pages with her fascinating exploration of LGBT's in history.

We wish to extend our sincere condolences to Kelli Randell on the passing of her father. We know this has been a very trying time and is a tremendous personal loss. Kelli has always been there for our community and I know we are there for both her and Dan during their time of loss. We ask everyone to remember the stages of grief and cut Kelli a break if she is not her usual understanding and helpful self.

After endings there are always beginnings and beginning in this issue we have a few new advertisers. Down south, beyond our usual distribution area, is Manhattan South in Ft. Lauderdale. This is the second Broward business to use us to reach out to the population north of them. Now you may know Manhattan South as a country and western bar, but Denise is doing a dance night on Fridays called Pulse with DJ Bill Hallquist to keep you moving and special guest DJ Lydia Prim promises to make February 9th something really special to check out at Manhattan South.

Joe & Craig's Place in Boca Raton is something special. It's intimate, up-scale, friendly and full of surprises. Look for the Pub sign to find the place – something to do with Boca's sign ordinance. Check out the videos – Joe and Craig produce music videos so you just might see something on their screens before it makes it to general release! Since they know the artists and their band you just might see, live and in person, someone from the music scene stopping by for a low-key time at Joe & Craig's Place in Boca.

Last but not least, we have All Sunshine Skylights up in Brevard County – the perfect answer for those dark rooms in your house. They specialize in Solatube® which brings outside light into your house where you want it without heat or UV. If you're in the northern part of our distribution area and you turn lights on in the daytime to see, give Mike a call; the FPL bill you lower will be your own.

As you can see from our cover up at the Cold Keg, they crowned Miss Brevard County over the weekend. They're having their annual Fireball on February 10, so grab your honey and your red dress. On March 10th Cold Keg has their Mardi Gras party followed by a benefit for The Living Room benefit on the 18th with Kelli Randell and Roz Russell.

The Living Room's Gay Skate is rolling right along and their first 2007 fundraiser is Gay Bowling on February 18, it's not just bowling, it's Cosmic Gay Bowling. If you don't bowl, stop in anyway for billiards, karaoke and a 50-50 raffle. There's even going to be a door prize – it $15 in advance, get your tickets at your local bar or organization or call them at 321-505-0077 or email info@TLRbrevard.org. See their ad on page 29 for details.

The King Center in Melbourne has two great shows coming up in early March: Patti LaBelle and Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo. Now if you've never seen Trockadero you've missed something more than a few men in tights. The more you know about ballet the funnier it is and if you don't like ballet Trockadero might just change your mind. I don't need to say anything about Miss LaBelle, you already know her show is a knockout. Call today and get

Spiritually Speaking

January is almost over. Did you make any resolutions for the New Year? Did you make any decisions about changes you want to make in your life? Making resolutions is easy. Making the actual changes is not. We are creatures of habit, and we don't like to make changes in our lives.

It's not easy to begin an exercise program. Dieting can be more difficult. Making the changes necessary to be more organized or to eat more balanced meals means we have to change several things in our lives.

Maybe you want to go back to school or find a new job or even buy your own house. Perhaps there is a dream you have always had. What keeps you from doing it? Why are we so hesitant to make the final decision or commitment to go for our dream? It's not easy to step out and make major changes and commitments in our lives.

History tells us Jesus had a job. He was a carpenter. He had his career. He had friends. But he knew there was something else he was supposed to do in life. He had the disciples already organized. But he was not ready to take that final step, that final commitment to begin his life's calling.

One day, according to the Gospels, Jesus and his disciples were invited to a wedding that his mother was also invited to. Everything was going fine at the reception until they ran out of wine. The Gospels tell us a story of how Jesus' mother tells him to do something about the wine. Jesus tells his mother that he isn't ready to start his new life. He didn't think it was time yet.

Here he was – thirty years old. He already has his staff hired – the twelve disciples. But he didn't want to make that final decision to start. His mother refused to listen to him and told the others to just do whatever he said to provide for the wedding guests.

It's like buying a new car. Once you make the decision and sign on the dotted line, you are stuck with the payments. Once you take that first step, there is no going back. Once you start, there is no stopping.

I think this is the real story of the turning water into wine that the Bible gives us. The real story is about Jesus saying he didn't want to start his new life. Mary is tired of waiting for him. To her, it was time for Jesus to get off the couch and out of the house and to start doing what he needed to be doing.

So we too, just sit back and wait. It is scary to make that decision. We wonder if we can really do what we need to do. So, we do nothing. Maybe we are waiting for someone to just drop the answer in our laps. But most of us will never win the lottery.

Maybe we are waiting for someone else to do it for us. Maybe we are just waiting for a "Mary" to come along and tell us to get moving. We are great with excuses. Jesus gave his mother an excuse – "It's not time yet." Mary basically said, "If not now, when? What is keeping you from doing it?"

Once he started, there was no going back. The first step is the most difficult. The end result, however, was the best wine at the wedding. You will never see improvements or changes for the better until you take that first step.

So, what is it you need to be doing? What is it you have been putting off? What is it you are afraid of beginning? What is the decision you are hesitant to make? What is holding you back? Instead of saying, "It's not time yet," say, "Why not?" Mary was tired of the excuses Jesus gave her. She stopped listening to the excuses and told Jesus to just get it done. What's keeping you from starting the changes you need in life? ▼

There's great news up in Titusville: a new place to go. Drake Austin and his mother Clarisse have gotten together with Val, formerly of The Bellwood, to provide a local place to hang out on Fridays and Saturdays from 9 pm to 2 am. Val moved up into Titusville a few months ago and opened Val's European Deli & Restaurant at 3434 S. Washington (US 1). It's wine and beer (with the typical wine based cocktails available) and it is a place for those in north county to go (for those of you not familiar with Brevard County, it's 78 miles north to south -- it's 40 miles from Val's to the Cold Keg). Call 321-385-3232 for more info.

Those in the know know that REBAR is celebrating it's 2nd anniversary starting February 8 and continuing all weekend. That gives everyone a couple of weeks to recover from The Treasure Coast Pride fundraiser last Sunday. Even with Port St. Lucie only having one bar now Treasure Coast Pride is growing stronger – it's going to be the place to be April 22 to see those hot boys of Nemesis, plus Redboy, an all female indie-rock group and a cover group called Unmasked – boy, oh boy, South County Stadium will be rocking that day.

Treasure Coast Pride benefit at REBAR raised over $1,000

Oh, and don't forget, MCC Palm Beach is holding their 6th annual Rainbow Ball this year on Saturday March 31st, at 7pm, at the PBC Convention Center ballroom. The theme is "Cascades in Paradise". Contact the church for more info. ▼
