HOROSCOPE by Jacqueline

We begin this month with a full moon in Libra on the 2nd, making the focus of this month one-to-one relationships. With Jupiter going retrograde on the 5th, all will be focused on the long term direction that romance is taking. On the 6th, Mars goes into Pisces, which is not the time for action, but feeling. Because Mercury will be in Aries on the 10th and the New Moon in the same sign on the 17th, you'll want to take action. Wait, because after the 19th the true answer will come, or you'll find yourself correcting your mistakes in May.

Aries March 23 - April 22 HAPPY Solar Return! The pieces are finally coming together. All you have left is the fine tuning. This month brings a fresh approach in romance and stronger bonds with friendships. Learn how to express yourself with humor. You'll find people more receptive.

Taurus April 23 - May 22 You feel rushed this month. Everybody wants everything now. Relax; slow and steady wins the race. They'll wait. This is the time to stand for who you truly are. Don't let anyone throw you off track. Remember that taking care of yourself first allows you to accomplish tasks more effectively and efficiently.

Gemini May 23 - June 22 Your appetite for excitement is peaking this month when Venus goes into your sign on the 12th. Others will be attracted to you and are willing to enjoy the fun. Be careful because what you see is not always what is true. Follow what you feel and not what you see.

Cancer June 23 - July 22 Just because you can see they might walk off that cliff doesn't mean that you can stop them. Don't struggle with such things this month or you'll waste your time. Use your time instead to make your quality of life better.

It's a good time for you to explore new career opportunities and make long term plans to achieve what you want.

Leo July 23 - August 22 Finally Saturn in your sign is going direct on the 19th! You're being released and you're plans will start going the way you've wanted. However, Saturn is still in your sign, which means that you are still in the learning process. Go with the flow and don't get stuck in one direction.

Virgo August 23 - September 22 You'll be focused more than usual on your health this month. Take the time to make the changes you need to improve your quality of life. You'll find minor issues coming into your love life. Learn to use your sense of humor. Don't take it too seriously.

Kelli Randall and Roz Russell (right) hosted Build the Walls! benefit for The Living Room at the Cold Keg featuring (below from right) Velvet Lenore, Mercedes, Addison Taylor, Shelita Cox, Angelica Marie Kincade and Veronica Ray. The show, raffles, and auctions netted $1,900 for The Living Room. Flowers were provided by Brevard Florist.

$1,900 is the haul from the Build the Walls! benefit for The Living Room of Brevard held at the Cold Keg in Melbourne. Sharon and the staff went all out to make it a success. The community's dedication shown through as the day after St. Patrick's Day really isn't the best day for a benefit but the crowd was generous as were the donors of the many raffle and auction items. It's a great start for the year for a new and just starting community center.

Speaking of just starting, The Living Room has begun to operate in a limited fashion. With it's business license it can do things at its offices but with no walls – it's just one large room – there can be only one activity at a time there. The need $10,000 to put up the walls and hope to start soon building out piece-meal all the while continuing with Gay Skate and starting some new programs. They are always looking for volunteers, just email volunteers@TLRbrevard.org.

We were really sorry we didn't know about the Project Response events in time for the last issue so we missed telling you about their March 10th Lightly Fondled rummage sale at their Melbourne location and ARTopia major fundraiser on March 29th at the Heritage Center in Vero Beach. That's the problem with being a monthly, announcements often come in after deadline. But the First Lady of Melbourne, Roz Russell, did know about it and pitched in. You go girl!

We're going to keep it short this month so there's room for some pictures from The Pridefest of the Palm Beaches and we hope we'll be in shape to get them in after two days of partying in West Palm – of course we can't miss being well rested from our stay at Grandview Gardens. Somehow no matter how harried we are, just walking in soothes our soul and the gracious hosts Rick and Peter make sure our time there is relaxing even if we're only there for the few hours between last call at Kashmir and breakfast (well, brunch – ok lunch)!

Treasure Coast Pride, April 22 in Port St. Lucie, is this month's not-to-be-missed event. It's going to be packed, with tons of vendors and a show like the GLBT community of the Treasure Coast has never seen – kudos to their board for a booking coup! Josh Walden, emcee, Nemesis (Joshua and Jacob), Josh Zukerman, DJ Joshua, Redboy and Unmasked. WOW In little old Port St. Lucie! Tickets are on sale now – www.treasurecoastpride.com for details. This may be the little fest on the coast right now, but this is a group to watch!

The official afterparty will be at REBAR and if you're lucky you just might get up close to some of the performers and I know a lot of folks who want to spend some quality time with Joshua and Jacob! It's going to be a packed house and Jim and Jerry are working hard to have a special treat for everyone: some more elbow room.

There's more room in West Palm Beach now that John Elu is running Debutante on Saturdays at The Lounge at 517 Clematis in downtown West Palm Beach. A new venue for everyone to check out.

Spiritually Speaking

An infant's growth in the first year of life is rapid. Around their first birthday, most infants begin to walk. During an infant's second year, the growth rate begins to slow down, but both gross and fine motor skills progress rapidly. The average child grows 2 ½ inches in height and gains between 5 and 7 pounds a year during early childhood. During the preschool years, both boys and girls slim down as the trunks of their bodies lengthen. Their heads are still somewhat large for their bodies, but by the end of the preschool years most children have lost their top heavy look. At the end of the preschool years, body fat has shown a slow, steady decline. The chubby baby often looks much leaner by the end of early childhood. Girls have more fatty tissue than boys; boys have more muscle tissue.

In the period of middle and late childhood, the growth of the child is slow and consistent. This is a period of calm before the rapid growth spurt of adolescence. During these years, children grow an average of 2 to 3 inches a year until, at about the age of 11, the average girl is 4 feet, 10 ¼ inches tall, and the average boy is 4 feet, 9 inches tall. During these years, children gain about 5 to 7 pounds a year. Baby fat decreases and children tend to double their strength capabilities.

Sometimes we tend to forget that between the birth of Jesus and the beginning of his ministry, he had a period of years of normal growth. The Bible makes it clear that Jesus had a very normal childhood. The Bible doesn't tell us much about the childhood of Jesus. Between the time of his birth and the start of his ministry, Jesus played with his friends and went to school and skinned his knees and climbed trees. He probably had childhood spats with his friends. His parents were used to him being off with his childhood friends.

I like the concept that Jesus experienced everything we experience in life. He knew the frustrations of childhood. He knew the reality of growing pains. He experienced the reality of teenage problems. He even had issues with his parents from time to time. Jesus and his parents did not always see eye to eye about his actions. Once he apparently did not pack his bags and leave with the family group when they left Jerusalem to return home. In fact, he was a little on the cocky side when his parents found him. When they asked him why he wasn't with them and their group traveling home together, he basically told his parents to "bug off" and leave him alone.

Growing up can be a very challenging time. We struggle to find ourselves while our bodies are still growing and developing. Our bodies are constantly growing and changing. Our thinking patterns are constantly growing and changing. Most of us are not the same people we were five years ago or even one year ago. Our changes and growth do not stop just because we reach a certain age.

One of our challenges is to find ways to grow our relationships at the same time our bodies are growing and changing. The relationship Jesus had with his family changed over the years. Mary and Joseph grow from being his parents to, at the age of twelve, he views them as his earthly caretakers to, during his ministry, telling his mother that she isn't his family to the time he was dying on the cross, telling John to take care of his mother.

Relationships change as we go through the various stages of life. The way we view God changes. The way we view each other changes. The way we view ourselves changes.

Jesus even changed how he viewed his friends. One day the disciples were his main support, the next day he was calling Peter "Satan" and telling him to get away from him. Eventually, Jesus calls Peter a Rock, a strong person. Jesus experienced changes in his relationships. Jesus went some difficult periods during his development years.

We, too, sometimes face difficult periods in our lives. Sometimes our heads are proportionally larger than our bodies. Sometimes we take the same attitude Jesus took and tell our parents where to get off. Eventually, our development balances out and our maturity begins to kick in. For Jesus to mature and develop to the place where he could begin his ministry took thirty years. Growing up can be a long and difficult process.

Maturity is something that does not happen overnight. We like to think that we know everything we need to know. Jesus had to learn his lessons. He had a normal childhood. Before we can be our most productive, we too, must experience our growing years. Growing up is a natural part of life. Don't worry if you don't have all the answers to life or don't always seem to have it all together. Give it some time and allow the natural process of growth to occur. ▼

Libra September 23 – October 22 With the full moon on the 2nd in your sign and this being the 1/2 way mark of your year, you'll be feeling a little indecisive this month. That's okay as it's a good time to reassess what direction you're going. Be open to new avenues to your happiness. Nothing is as urgent as it seems.

Scorpio October 23 – November 22 You'll be sucked into the madness of others this month. Don't buy their story. This is not the time to help others. Instead, stay home and do something for yourself; Remodel a room and make it you. I know it may be challenging, but by the end of the month you'll be glad you didn't get caught up in someone else's drama.

Sagittarius November 23 – December 22 Keep your calendar close because you'll need it to keep up with your busy schedule this month. Don't let the obligations of others run your schedule; if it doesn't fit in your timeline than you shouldn't do it. New opportunities will arise. If it seems too good to be true, it is.

Capricorn December 23 – January 22 They're will be a lot of interesting developments in your career. You'll want to act upon them, but wait! This month is still a time for studying and observing as May and June are the months to act. By the end of this month, you'll know when the time is right.

Aquarius January 23 – February 22 You're ability for decision-making is sharp now so use it to your advantage. Persuade others to see your point of view. They want your advice and they'll listen. Make sure any resolution is for the good of the whole and not of just you.

Pisces February 23 – March 22 Decisions you've put off will come easily for you now. Act upon them. Don't let others distract you from what you know you need to do, but don't neglect them either. Prioritize and call them back on your time. In this way you won't feel like you're being taken advantage of. ▼

For those who want to know: Now that I've explaining each sign, we can start with the planets and how they have an effect on us. The Moon is the fastest moving planet. It changes signs every 28 days. It is known that the Moon controls our tides, but it also controls our emotions. The full moon is known to be an active time for unusual behavior. In Astrology it stands for endings. The New Moon is known for new beginnings. With the full moon in Aries, the first sign of the zodiac and the beginning of spring, this is a good time to let go of the past and begin a fresh path to achieve your hopes, desires and dreams.

encouraging progress last year now it the time for everyone to give them whatever backing you can and get this ridiculous law revoked. Go to their web site and sign up! We can have a statewide success here to begin building momentum to defeat the anti-gay marriage amendment coming in 2008. On the national level the Human Rights Campaign reports that Reps. John Conyers, D-Mich., and Mark Kirk, R-Ill., introduced the Local Law Enforcement Hate Crimes Prevention Act, with 137 co-sponsors. More than 210 law enforcement, civil rights, civic and religious organizations have already endorsed the bill. According to a Peter D. Hart Research Associates poll HRC conducted in early February, 73 percent of registered voters say that they support hate crimes legislation. Passage still won't be easy so here's another organization that deserves your support. We all need to get involved now to build for a big change in 2008. ▼

Don't see your event mentioned? Did you tell me about it? I'm a fairy, not a seer, silly! Send your news, gossip and tidbits to MissT@ootcmag.com
