HOROSCOPE by Jacqueline

HAPPY NEW YEAR! This is the year for transformations! We start off with the New Moon and solar eclipse in Capricorn on the 4th, this event illuminates the heavens providing us with the means to see beyond our normal field of vision and provides us with a strong foundation to set long term goals and steer ourselves towards a better life. When Venus enters Sagittarius on the 7th, we will be able to know what we truly love and with Mercury traveling back into Capricorn on the 13th, we'll know how to achieve it. Next, Mars goes into Aquarius on the 15th; beware of the ensuing drama however, instead of feeding to it, use this time to take foundational steps towards your long term goals. The full moon in late degrees of Cancer on the 19th, allows us to transform our old traditional ties to the past to suit our new direction in life. Expect sudden opportunities to arise after Jupiter goes into Aries on the 22nd. We end the month with Saturn in Libra going retrograde on the 26th. There are lessons for all in balance and one to one relationships.

Aries March 23 - April 22 Congratulations! The work you began in the fall of 2009 is gaining momentum as you've past the midpoint of your quest. Now is the time for you to relax and see the strides you have made. Remember those who aided you, still have much to offer and will be of great assistance in your endeavors. After the 22nd, new contacts could bring great benefits. So get out and have some fun!

Taurus April 23 - May 22 You begin the year in a quandary regarding relationships, friends and those in positions of authority. Who can you rely on, believe in, or trust? The answer has been as it always has; the one you can trust is you! Don't play into the drama. Take your time, analyze the facts and let the evidence guide you to a solution.

You'll be happy with the results.

Gemini May 23 - June 22 You'll be the centre of attention this month as all come to you for solutions and guidance. However the newfound popularity has you stretched beyond your limits. Set your boundaries, identify your limitations and don't get caught up in the drama. Expect lots of communication coming from unexpected sources. Know what is right for you and don't allow others to cross that line. Your true friends will support you.

Cancer June 23 - July 22 The Sun is directly opposing your sign this month making you feel extremely sensitive. Don't internalize others emotions and expressions as they might not be for the reason you think. Instead of dwelling on what is in the past, take this time to get out and embrace new experiences and friends as this where you'll find comfort.

Leo July 23 - August 22 Prepare yourself for a ride on the wild side as Mars goes into Aquarius on the 15th. You may feel the urge to jump in the hoopla but curb your enthusiasm. Nothing is urgent; nothing is concrete, as your plans will change due to the environment. Although you may lose interest in a project or person, put your worries aside, the timing is not right and there's the chance it may return later in a whole new light.

Virgo August 23 - September 22 As the New Year begins your natural urge to take the bull by the horns comes into fruition. Go forward and stay the course. Steer clear of distraction as others suggestions can't help you. You may be overly sensitive or judgmental to their ideas. Rise above it and work with them to accomplish your goals.

Libra September 23 - October 22 After the Full Moon, obstacles created in December dissolve. Seek out those with creative energies that complement that of your own. Make purchases that enhance and simplify your living environment. Beware of resistance from Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, and Aquarius as their path is not yours and the drama will only create confusion.

Scorpio October 23 - November 22 You start the New Year off on a roll as you're ability as an alchemist is heightened. Until the 19th, your impulse to make the most out of nothing is heightened; use this time to your advantage. After, sit back and be the observer, especially at work. Your hands are tied so don't participate in the drama and only answer questions when asked. You'll discover that your silence will allow the right changes to occur.

Sagittarius November 23 - December 22 Cupid has a surprise for you as Venus goes into your sign on the 7th. Be acceptant of his gift, don't question it, you deserve it. Use this opportunity to take inventory of the things that bring joy into your life and after the full moon on the 19th, you'll be in a better position to identify the things that bring happiness into your heart and able to

with Miss T

It's that weird time of year for us: in the middle of all the parties, gearing up for New Year's Eve and getting the magazine out with only part of the information. We know what's happened and what's going to happen but there's still enough up in the air to make things, um, interesting.

So let's start with what has happened. Once again Vero Beach PFLAG highlighted December with their yearly toy drive. It's their longstanding outreach to local families in need. Members adopt families living at Safe Space, the shelter for abused women and their families, and everyone brings presents to the Christmas dinner for Youth Guidance who is dedicated to enriching the lives of over 700 "at-risk" children in Indian River County. Vero Beach PFLAG does it again: shows the maturity of being the oldest GLBT organization on the Space and Treasure Coasts by just doing it, no big deal, just making the community, as a whole, a better place.

Pride festivals are part of making the area better and REBAR is hosting the final benefit for Pride of the Treasure Coast with their spectacular Dining with the Stars on January 23. Only $25 for dinner and a show, what a deal. You can get in to see the show only for just $15. Call the bar for tickets and if you're lucky they'll have a seat left.

PFLAG Vero Beach collected toys for Youth Guidance and adopted families at Safe Space. As usual the folks showed how much our community cares.

January 23 must be an auspicious day as Project Response chose that day as well for the kick off of their Camp Heartland and Beyond fundraisers to send children from families affected by HIV/AIDS to summer camp with a show at Cold Keg. We know the queens will be talking but we also know that neither organization knew what the other planned so there's no feud, no rancor, no nothing. Coincidence is all it is but I'm sure Facebook will have an amusing undercurrent of fake drama between the groups and individuals involved. Just ignore it and choose the one closest to you, go and enjoy.

Ultra Lounge is the place to go and enjoy yourself in Cocoa – you can be sure their New Year's Eve party will be outstanding, and it's free! Yes indeed, Lexi Leigh and Axhia Li will show in the New Year as only Ultra Lounge can do. You can be sure all Cocoa Village will stop by for the fun!

Of course down in Melbourne, Cold Keg has a triple threat: Kelli Randell, Amber Douglas and Paige King will party late into the night for the one time a year that Cold Keg stays open until 4 AM. Food, fun and their famous balloon drop are to be had for a reasonable cover – get your ticket now and save $5. It's going to be fabulous night at the club.

And that brings us to Dukes. They aren't open Christmas Eve or New Years Eve and with a change of Wow, as I write this article Christmas has not even happened yet (we must get to press early) so thinking about the first article in 2011 seems a little strange to say the least.

First of all, I am very glad that 2010 is finally over. 2010 was a newsmaker on many fronts but personally it will go down as a year of loss. Several of my friends have lost their jobs and homes, our church lost two precious members through death, one of my best friends and coworkers died, and my special sister-in-law also passed. It was certainly a year of losses but also one of great blessing. In July we gained custody of our 10 year old grandson from a neglectful and abusive situation. Two years ago, on 12/31/09, we received custody of his younger sister so now we have the matching pair! What a blessing this has been not only to these children but to ourselves as well. Raising two young children was not what we had planned for this time of our lives but God is full of surprises. Our job as Christians is to accept whatever we are handed in our lives and seek the positive in it. If we think of changes in our lives as opportunities rather than dwelling on what appears negative or insurmountable, we will find our lives are full of overflowing with love, joy, and peace.

There is a passage of Scripture that I believe can be of help to us as we look forward to 2011 if we'll listen to it. The passage is Ephesians 5:15-17, and here is what it says, "Be very careful, then, how you live not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is." I believe the Apostle Paul has some valuable lessons for us in this passage.

Our time on earth is limited so we must learn to treat every moment carefully and prayerfully. When I was young(er) I thought I had a very long time to make critical changes in my life. Poor attitudes, negativity, doubts all plagued me every step of the way in my 20s. In my 30s I was too busy raising children to worry much about these things but they were still very present in my heart and thoughts if maybe not so apparent to an outsider viewing my life. My 40s were where the change began in my heart and my life. Although I had been a Christian since childhood, I still had those negative things that hindered my relationship with God, others, and myself. Yes, my 40s were a time of growth and breaking free from those things that hindered me. But alas, I wasn't home free yet. It seems that the more things I shed, the more things that seemed to crop up that needed dealing with. I had no idea how dark my attitudes were until I began dealing with them! Throughout my 40s and 50s I worked on myself, my relationships, and began seeing some real changes being made. Now in my 60s I find that I recognize these hindrances much sooner and can deal with myself and others more lovingly than ever before in my life...I can't wait to see what changes my 70s bring!

We should make the most of every opportunity because, as Paul tells us, "the days are evil." Is this evil something that was just there during Paul's time? No, if we don't recognize that evil exists we are foolish. The troubles we experienced in 2010 don't look like they are going away just because we rolled into 2011! 2010 may be been a tough year but believe FLORIDA/WASHINGTON, DC—Martin Gill, the plaintiff in the successful legal challenge to Florida’s anti-gay adoption ban, will be attended the White House Holiday Reception December 16th. The invitation follows a direct appeal by Equality Florida to the President asking him to spotlight the harm of Florida’s anti-gay adoption law which has since been struck down by the courts.

“I know I’m not representing just myself or even just my own children. I will be there on behalf of every child in need of a loving home and all the future families that will be formed because of our victory this year. Thank you for standing with me,” said Martin Gill in a note written to supporters across the state.

On September 22nd, Martin and his family, represented by the ACLU, won a unanimous Third District Court of Appeals decision that found Florida’s adoption ban unconstitutional. The decision is binding statewide and, for the first time in 33 years, allows gay people to be considered as prospective adoptive parents in Florida.

Earlier in the year, Equality Florida facilitated Martin Gill and his boys’ attendance at the Easter Egg Roll on the White House lawn. The picture of the two boys facing the oval office became a powerful emblem in the fight to end the ban. During the White House Pride event in June, Equality Florida’s Executive Director Nadine Smith was able to place that picture and a note in President Barack Obama’s hand and ask for his help in denouncing anti-gay adoption law. The President promised to read the note and White House staff followed up on the request.

“We are thrilled that the President made good on his promise by inviting Martin and his partner to the White House,” Nadine Smith, executive director of Equality Florida.

“Martin Gill is a hero to the thousands of children in Florida’s foster care system who now have a better chance of finding a loving adoptive family,” said Smith. “Most of all, Martin is a father who stood up and refused to allow anyone to tear their family apart.”

The end of the anti-gay adoption ban, the only such ban in the nation, is evidence of a dramatic shift in Florida. A recent report by Equality Florida shows the majority of Floridians now live in communities with inclusive anti-discrimination policies.

Major employers are also lauding the end of the adoption ban, passage of safe schools laws and pro-equality local ordinances as a major improvement in Florida’s reputation as a welcoming and inclusive place to live, work and visit. Through Equality Florida’s “Equality Means Business” program, corporations such as Pepsico, Wells Fargo, Citi, and BlueCross BlueShield of Florida are highlighting the importance and value of respecting diversity in Florida.

Equality Florida is the largest civil rights organization dedicated to securing full equality for Florida’s lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community.

WELLINGTON—International Gay Polo Tournament To Benefit Palm Beach County Human Rights Council

The Gay Polo League - the world’s only polo league for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) players - will return to Florida to host their second International Gay Polo Tournament. The event will be held at the Grand Champions Polo Field in Wellington on Saturday, April 1, 2011.

The Gay Polo League is a United States Polo Association (USPA) official club and consists of all levels of polo players, from beginners to professionals. The League will bring out their highest players to compete in a USPA governed tournament, comprised of twelve League players, and four additional world-class polo professionals.

This year, half of the money raised from ticket sales will be donated to the Palm Beach County Human Rights Council (PBCHRC), a local non-profit organization dedicated to ending discrimination based on sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression.

After last year’s tournament, PBCHRC successfully lobbied the Village of Wellington to amend its Equal Employment Opportunity policy to prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression.

“The Gay Polo League’s selection of Wellington as the site for an international LGBT event encouraged the Council to ask the Village to adopt a more inclusive employment,” said Council President Rand Hoch. “We also took the opportunity to ask Wellington to consider offering domestic partner benefits for Village employees.”

PBCHRC continues to work with the Village on domestic partnership issues.

“The Palm Beach County Human Rights Council is honored to be in partnership with the Gay Polo League for this incredible event,” said Hoch.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—From National Center for Lesbian Rights (NCLR) Major Federal Income Tax Changes for Same-Sex Couples for 2010 Tax Returns A Special to On the Docket by Karen K. Stogdill, CEBS, EA and Deb Kinney, Esq.

In a major victory for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) announced in May 2010 that it will recognize the community property rights granted by states to same-sex couples in state-registered domestic partnerships, civil unions, and marriages just as it does for opposite-sex married couples. Currently, the states that both legally recognize same-sex couples and grant community property rights are California, Nevada, and Washington. While the IRS did not go so far as to recognize the relationship status, this recognition has many positive consequences. As a result of being able to split community property income, many couples—though not all—will pay less federal income tax. Whether any particular couple will pay less tax depends on their particular circumstances, and some couples may owe more in federal taxes.

The IRS announced that the changes, while mandatory for 2010 tax returns and future years, can be applied retroactively for 2007, 2008, and 2009 tax returns if desired. Tax practitioners in California, Nevada, and Washington have been busy amending tax returns for legally related same-sex couples with many of them getting considerable tax refunds, anywhere from $500 per couple to as much as $20,000 per couple, per year. You should consult with your tax advisor about amending your past returns as soon as possible to see how these changes may affect you. Generally, couples who benefit the most are those where there is a large disparity in their income levels. But there are no hard and fast rules here.

If you file as Head of Household (HOH) you may need to take some specific action before December 31, 2010 in order to preserve your HOH filing status.

While this probably does not apply to same-sex couples whose legal residence is in Florida, the status of couples that were legally married in California, Nevada or Washington is not clear. If you are in that situation and want to explore this IRS ruling you must consult both a legal expert and an IRS expert.

allow the rest to pass on its own.

Capricorn December 23 – January 22 Happy solar return! With Mars in your sign; you'll have the energy and drive to make sound decisions and to properly act upon them. Don't wait for the input of others, be Nike, just do it. Your communications level is strong, others will hear you. Take charge and show your mettle, others will be amazed at what your new path brings.

Aquarius January 23 – February 22 Mars will be the driving force as it goes into your sign on the 15th. Use this time to move forward in your life, let go of the past as you welcome the excitement and divineness that awaits you. Honor and duty you must pursue to follow your path. So step up to the plate, accept the responsibility and take the lead. Most importantly do it with joy.

Pisces February 23 – March 22 Thanks to Venus, nothing is consistent this month. Your motto now is go with the flow and don't try to control anything. No worries all will be accomplished in its right time. It just may not be the way you planned it. Learn how to multitask at this time and you'll get more accomplished.

For those who want to know: Mars is entering Aquarius the sign of the water barer this month. Even though she bears water, she is an air sign. It rules Uranus. It is the group sign and has a social conscious. Aquarians are known to be 50 years ahead of their time. They can see the end result as long as they look. This is the most dramatic sign. It rules the different or unusual they can be considered the awakener. They have a freedom urge, however usually feel like divine discontent. It rules your friends, hopes and desires. This month is a great time to socialize with others, and take action in your life towards creating what you've longed for.

me, 2011 will have its own share of ills with which we must deal. In order to be victorious we must be proactive and learn to arm ourselves though prayer, study of the Word, and meditation. Only in this way will we be able to stand firm in the faith during difficulties.

We must find God's will for our lives and focus on those things. The two greatest thieves we have in our lives are regrets for things in the past and anxiety about the future.

Regardless of where you are right now, God has a plan, a perfect plan for your life. Seek that plan and when you "get it" you will have peace and joy beyond anything you have ever thought or dared to dream. How do I know this is true? The Word tells us to let go of the past and seek God's face in our lives and when we do, we will have peace that passes all human understanding. Why? Because it is DIVINE!

ownership at the hotel we're not quite sure what's going to happen in January. At press time Pete hadn't had his meeting with the new/old owners and so no one knows if they will allow the Gay Friday night to continue. Since it has been making big numbers for the bar the dollars may prevail but we do know they've already gotten rid of the chief and don't intend to have a restaurant so they may do away with beverage service, too. Word is that the property is "in play" as the real estate folks say so lets hope there will lots more to write about and see at that property in the near future. In the meantime you can be sure that Pete will see to it that Vero doesn't loose its Gay night. Keep watch at www.GayVero.com to see where to party on January 7 in Vero.

Starting in January, Sassy Devine is the new Trash Night host on the second Thursday of the month at Cold Keg.

Talking about parties, we really wish the season was longer so they could be spaced out a bit more. The way it works now is that we commit to the first invitation (and usually have to duck out early to go take pics somewhere) and decline invitations that come in later. So we ended up missing Hugh and Jason's bash which gathered toys for Project Response families in need. Hugh and Jason have a beautiful home and are such gracious hosts that every gathering there is just wonderful and we are indeed sorry we couldn't make it.

We also had to miss Lourdis birthday celebration. To miss the camaraderie and the food (her pork is to die for) was disappointing so we wanted to congratulate a special person on her special birthday. Happy soth!

Now for the ones we didn't miss: first was Moose's in...um famous Christmas bash. The whole of the north end of the county was there. We just couldn't understand why the neighbors stood at the fence all red in the face when they could have come on in and enjoyed themselves. Oh well, everyone else had a blast! With Woofy as the DJ and Azhia Li and Kevin performing and most of the rest of the staff, even Stephanie and Tony were there. So I put some of those photos under Ultra Lounge this month because, well, it was the ne plus ultra event in that area.

The following week it was Kevin&Jon&Michael&Jeffry's event (trust me folks, these are events not your typical little house parties) in downtown Melbourne. The house was beautiful, decorated to a T, as only Kevin could do. The food was plentiful, friends abundant, Neil on the sound system was flawless and Kelli Randell was fabulous, of course. Sentiment was warm with a special gift for Randy from the attendees to help with his medical expenses. We wish we could have stayed all night, but as usual we had to run off to take pictures elsewhere.

This weekend it was down to Bill & Albert's in Vero for their yearly Toys for Tots blowout. The huge pile of gifts showed how many folks turned out for their no-holds-barred good time. The food, the karaoke, the

We want to thank each and everyone for inviting us to be part of your holiday celebration and salute each and everyone who took the spirit of the season and contributed on one good cause after another. And sincerest wishes for a prosperous New Year! (And now we're off to our final Christmas party).

Gay Rights tidbit: Florida now ranks among the top five states in the nation in protecting gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) people from discrimination, according to a report released by the statewide civil rights group Equality Florida. The report, Winning Equality, looks at the progress made in Florida since the organization formed in 1997. It documents pro-equality successes in areas of workplace non-discrimination, family recognition, and school safety, while also highlighting that the organization has defeated anti-LGBT legislative efforts in every session over the past 13 years.

Looking at the status of GLBT people in Florida this becomes a sobering statistic. We may have come a long way but the journey has much further to go.

Everyone had a great time at Kevin & Jon & Michael & Jeffry's party. You shoulda been there!
